NASHVILLE, TENN., December 18.—A pecial to the American from McKenzie. Tenn.

May: A terrible travely occurred here last night to o' clock, the victim being Miss Jessie Clark, beautiful and accomplished young lady sixtees cars old and the doughter of Thomas M. Clark, dward McLyeire Institute, whose father. J. J. McGhee, exides at Concorda, Miss., had called on the coung lady, when, according to the young man's fatement, she playfully took his pixto, took out he cartridges, then pointed the weapon at his treast, saying that she would show him how come ladies sometimes killed their restreant overs. McGhee says that at his time he stooped lown to regulate the fire, and Miss Clark had the systel out the mantel. When he arose he took up the pi tol and told her he would show her how a young man in Mississippi killed bis sweet, beart by shooting her in the back of the head, at done the shooting as detailed above. A jury of inquest was imponeled, but owing to the abovence of witnesses adjourned until this morning, when it had another meeting, but failed to agree and was discharged. It is understood that five of the jury exonerated McGhee and that two refused to enter any veryiet at all, except that the young lady was killed by a pistol in the hands of McGhee. Her father claims that the shooting was intentional, and a preliminary trial before a magnistrate will be had. McGhee was released on $1000 bond. The young man sustains a fair chargeler, as d the affair has cast the deepset sloom over the community, most of whom believe the young man innocent of murder.
